On October 21, 2026, 777 Blessing couples connected across continents in a special Zoom gathering to celebrate the 56th anniversary of their Blessing. Marking the fifth consecutive year of this virtual reunion, the event served as a beautiful testament to the enduring faith and lifelong bonds shared by these historical families.

A total of eight couples were represented at this year's meeting. In a special milestone for the annual gathering, the European organizers welcomed two couples from the United States for the very first time: Hugh and Nora Spurgin, alongside Farley and Betsy Jones. The American couples expressed great joy and gratitude for the opportunity to join the international call, sharing that there had not been a dedicated gathering for 777 couples in the U.S. for quite some time. Their participation brought a renewed sense of global fellowship to the digital reunion.

To the best of the organizers' knowledge, the European and Middle Eastern regions are currently home to thirteen 777 couples. While the virtual format allowed families to cross oceans, some couples were unable to attend this year's celebration due to language barriers, technical difficulties, or other personal circumstances. The gathering also held profound moments of reflection and remembrance for the brothers and sisters who have already transitioned to the spiritual world. Attendees paid special tribute to Yukiko Jager, who passed away earlier this year, taking time to honor her memory alongside the legacy of all the departed couples. Despite the challenges
