

West Africa Region: Ghana National President Leadership Transition Ceremony

Doo Seong yeon

July 13, 2025

True Peace Magazine - August 2025

After the ceremony at the Accra-Ghana Training Center

The West Africa Region Ghana National President installation and inauguration ceremony was held in Accra, Ghana on July 13. Through this leadership transition ceremony, the mission of former national President James Adu, who led the organization for 8 years and 5 months from February 2017, and Vice President Marte Whyte was taken over by the new national president. President Kwame Dadson Akins expressed his determination to widely spread the love of True Parents and Holy Mother Han, True Mother, contribute to society, and contribute to national development.

Newly installed National Leader Kwame Dadson Akins

George Ogurie, West Africa Region Director, together with the former national president and vice president, offered words of encouragement and guidance to the newly appointed national president, pledging their continued support and active collaboration.