IYSP and CARP Dominican Republic's Cultural Afternoon at FFWPU Headquarters

Bernardo Cruz and Carlos Hernandez
October 10, 2026

Date: October 10, 2026

Location: Main Hall of FFWPU Dominican Republic

Attendance: 70 young participants and staff

Event Overview

On October 10, 2026, the International Association of Youth and Students for Peace (IYSP) and collegiate CARP hosted a dynamic cultural afternoon at the main hall of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (FFWPU) in the Dominican Republic. Attended by 70 enthusiastic young people and staff members, the event aimed to promote cultural exchange, youth integration, and the peace-building ideals of True Parents.

Event Highlights

Inspiration and Vision: Master of Ceremonies Wilber Rosario Belliard opened the program with prayer. Following the opening, Hope Gómez Yamaguchi, President of Youth Providence, delivered a keynote presentation on the vision and mission of CARP and IYSP, emphasizing how True Parents' ideals empower youth to live for the sake of others and promote lasting peace.

Cultural Performances: Youth showcased rich traditions through performances representing Korea, Japan, Brazil, Bolivia, Mexico, Peru, and more, fostering deep brotherhood and appreciation for global diversity.

Special Guests: Representatives from the Bolivian Consulate joined the gathering, strengthening community ties and international fellowship.

Culinary and Photo Experience: Attendees enjoyed a global food-tasting session featuring traditional dishes from the represented nations. Participants also snapped memorable photos wearing authentic traditional clothing at a themed photo booth.

Fellowship and Fun: The celebration concluded with interactive dances, group games, and recreational activities that brought everyone together in camaraderie and joy.