YOUNG PEOPLE.
STRONGER COMMUNITIES.
A MORE PEACEFUL WORLD.

This session will explore how youth leadership, character development, and strong family values can help build more peaceful and resilient communities. Nyamka will share insights from his international work with the Leadership Task Force and his community initiatives through Peace Family NGO in Mongolia.

During the session, we will explore:

- Developing young leaders with strong character and value
- Strengthening families and communities
- Empowering youth to create lasting positive change
