As we journey through another week together, may we continue to support True Mother through our sincere prayers while finding encouragement in the stories and updates from across our community.

In this week's newsletter:

- A recap on Family Camp
- Summer programmes

MESSAGE OF THE WEEK

Dear Families,

As we conclude the first week of August, several youth workshops are coming to a close on Saturday 8 August, both in the UK (Children's Summer Camp) and across Europe (the European HARP Workshop). I would like to encourage parents to warmly welcome our children, teenagers, and young adults home, helping them reconnect with family life and draw inspiration from their workshop experiences.

I would also like to extend a heartfelt thank you to the community leaders, Blessed Couples, and young adults who feel called to support and educate our Blessed Children. Through your dedication, they can experience God's love, learn about God's dream, and connect more deeply with the words and life course of True Parents.

Let us take this opportunity to support one another in beginning or continuing healthy family traditions that welcome God into our homes and daily lives. As Blessed Families, may we strive to keep our spirits, bodies, and environments healthy, joyful, and centred on God.

It has been a busy few weeks for many families during the summer holidays. If you have not yet had the chance to participate in the 40-Day Devotion, please be encouraged that there are still opportunities to take part. With at least 21 days remaining, there is still time to connect with and support True Mother in both heart and action.

The Seonghwa Caring Ministry Team will host the Annual Memorial Service on Sunday, 9 August, to remember our beloved ascended brothers and sisters. Let us keep in mind those families who have lost loved ones, making a special effort to check in regularly and offer friendship and support as they journey through bereavement.

In the different phases of life, we can all experience frustration, anger, unresolved hurt, and other difficult emotions. If you are finding these feelings challenging to process, please reach out to the Blessed Family Department Team. We are available to offer a listening ear, prayer support, and signpost you to certified counsellors if needed.

Have a blessed week.

Applications are now open for the second edition of the Balkan International Youth Summit for Peace 2026, an international gathering that brings together young leaders, students, practitioners, civil society representatives, and peacebuilders from around the world.

Following the successful first edition, which welcomed more than 120 participants from over 33 countries, the Summit will once again transform Mitrovica into a platform for dialogue, cooperation, intercultural exchange, and youth-led action.

A THREE LEVEL APPROACH

Local — Bridging North and South Mitrovica

40 young people from both sides of the city are at the heart of the Summit — co-designing reconciliation activities and seeing their cultures embraced across every initiative.

Regional — A Western Balkans Network

Youth from across Kosovo, North Macedonia, Albania, Montenegro, Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina, connect through cross-border collaboration, building the relationships that sustain peace.

Global — The World Meets in Mitrovica

80 young leaders from Europe, the Middle East, the Americas, Asia, and Africa join in — bringing global perspectives and connecting Kosovo's youth to a worldwide network.

WHAT YOU'LL EXPERIENCE

01

Cross-Cultural Dialogue

Connect with peers from 40+ countries. Share traditions on Cultural Night. Build relationships that outlast the Summit.

02

High-Level Panels

Meet from regional and international experts

03

Youth-Led Solutions

In hands-on labs, co-design real responses to corruption, post-conflict trauma, and online disinformation. The best ideas earn mentoring.

04

The Peace Road & Basketball for Peace

Hear from regional and international experts on governance, integrity, mental health, and disinformation, then engage them directly.

For Peace

Cross the Mitrovica Bridge by bicycle as a symbol of reconciliation and join a friendly Basketball for Peace activity, using sport to promote unity, dialogue, and lasting friendships.

Expected impact numbers

120

Participants with ⅓ being local and ⅔ being international

40+
