

Empowering Tribal Messiahs, 2026 Thailand CheonBo Family Meeting

Kamol Thananopavarn

July 16, 2026

On July 16, 2026, FFWPU Thailand hosted its nationwide CheonBo Family Meeting online via Zoom, bringing together 60 participants aged 28 to 70. The gathering served to reignite the spiritual vision of CheonBo Families, offering practical guidance and inspiration to fulfill their crucial role in Heavenly Parent's providence.

Key Objectives

Clarifying Vision and Mission: Deepen participants' understanding of the responsibilities and goals of CheonBo Families according to the wishes of True Parents.

Empowering Tribal Messiahship: Encourage members to actively engage in witnessing and spiritual education within their tribes.

Strategic Alignment: Share effective strategies and best practices to advance the CheonBo providence throughout Thailand.

Inspiring Guidance and Strategic Direction

The program featured uplifting messages and testimonies from leadership and veteran CheonBo victors:

Words of Encouragement: Mr. MoonNoie Niyomchok, Indochina Regional Director, delivered motivating guidance, urging participants to stand firm in their commitment to God's providence.

Pioneer Testimony: Dr. Lek Thaweethoemsakun, Advisor to FFWPU Thailand and the nation's first CheonBo victor, shared his personal testimony. He emphasized the profound value, sacred mission, and providential significance of achieving CheonBo status.

Future Roadmap: Mr. Sangkom Netrasopha, Director of the CheonBo Department, outlined strategic plans for upcoming CheonBo initiatives and urged members to actively step into their roles.

Best Practices in Witnessing

A highlight of the meeting was a powerful testimony on Heavenly Tribal Messiahship. The speaker illustrated how continuous care, genuine love, and consistent education lead to lasting spiritual fruit. The message reminded everyone that while building faith in others requires patience and devotion, sincere investment always yields results.

Renewed Determination

Despite meeting virtually, participants from across Thailand experienced a strong sense of unity, spiritual warmth, and shared purpose. The meeting concluded with all attendees expressing renewed determination to fulfill their mission as true CheonBo Families and bring joy to Heaven.